Coverage of the recent Bloodhound Rocket Car Races will be shown on HCTV May 29 – June 4.

Throughout this week, HCTV will show Memorial Day Parades and Memorial Services from past years, starting in 1997.

Western Reserve Academy Archivist and Historian Thomas L. Vince presents the life of abolitionist and former Hudson resident John Brown and Morgan's Raid – the historic march of a cavalry of confederate soldiers deep into Union territory and led by Brigadier General John Hunt Morgan. Recorded at the historic Old Town Hall in Tallmadge, Mr. Vince tells the tale of these momentous Civil War subjects that changed the course of the nation. Produced by Allyn Marzulla and Nick Zaklanovich.

Forum 360 presents a discussion with Ohio Civil Rights Commission's Akron Regional Director, Bradley Dunn, about race discrimination, sexual harassment and retaliation. Dunn also shares what people can do who have been unfairly treated - - and what employers can do to prevent litigation.

The City Club of Cleveland presents a panel discussion on The First 100 Days of President Trump, and welcomes Amos N. Guiora, J.D., Ph.D. with The Crime of Complicity: The Bystander from the Holocaust to Today.

The Macaroni Mile Run for third graders at McDowell Elementary school will be shown this week.

On a new edition of KBTime, to mark the 50th Anniversary of The Beatles' "Sgt. Pepper," Kabir will examine the album's packaging and upcoming boxed set, plus some rare Beatles vinyl and the 2014 "Beatles in Mono" boxed set.

Hudson Rotary Club features Dan Williams with the Scholarship Awards Program.

Hudson Montessori Middle School's recent dramatic performance, "First Impressions of the 20th Century", featuring vignettes and personalities of all the decades, will be shown starting Thursday.

Coverage of the 2017 Hudson Community Expo, held at Hudson High School and presented by the Hudson Chamber of Commerce, features 100 local vendors discussing their products and services and includes live music and special guests.
