

HCTV Program Schedule: July 16 - 22, 2018

This month, Retirepreneur examines a new trend of Phased Retirements, plus an interview with Dr. Dale Hartz, about a program he launched to help high-potential homeless people become social entrepreneurs.

The 18th anniversary July 2018 edition of Good Day in Hudson welcomes Mayor David Basil with an update of the City of Hudson's major issues and programs. Frank then visits with Liz Murphy of Destination Hudson, previewing the new book by Destination Hudson, A Picture of Hudson.

Highlights of the A Picture of Hudson opening reception will be shown, starting Thursday evening.

Hudson Rotary Club presents Nicole Mullet, the Executive Director of ArtsNow Akron.

The Hudson Community Choruses present "The Singers, Celebrating 30 Years" concert featuring spirituals and performances of American composers and two compositions created for the concert.

HCTV's coverage from the prestigious annual Hudson Junior Invitational at the Country Club of Hudson, with interviews of the contestants, organizers, and supporters will be shown through the week.

Talking With, a public access program hosted by Marya Bednerik, welcomes Leadership Hudson's facilitator Bob Carter and class of 2018 Erika Federmann featuring the Hudson Farmers Market Cookbook.

The City Club of Cleveland reruns the recent talks by Susan Goldberg, Editor in Chief of the National Geographic Magazine, and also Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha, a pediatrician who paved the way for government officials in Flint, Michigan to acknowledge the extent of the water crisis.

Forum 360 host and Hudsonite Pat Simons talks with Sean Joyce, the new President and Executive Director of Stan Hywet Hall and Gardens.
